Audiences falling in love

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

The new TV landscape may be dominated by shows about teen-agers, but it's a middle-aged love story about second chances that is winning the hearts of viewers.

"Once and Again," ABC's successful new Tuesday drama, stars Sela Ward and Billy Campbell as single parents Lily Manning and Rick Sammler, two 40-somethings tentatively and comically fumbling their way to love.

Both have grown conditioned to making personal sacrifices for their children. In Lily's case, 14-year-old Grace (the startlingly good Julia Whelan) is a high-strung drama queen deeply stung by her father's departure and her mother's new relationship. Younger daughter Zoe (Meredith Deane), 9, is more stoic but still hopes her parents will reconcile.

Rick, a successful architect, has parental demands of his own. Daughter Jessie (Evan Rachel Wood), 12, is relatively low-maintenance, but 16-year-old Eli (Shane West) has a learning disability that isn't helped by his growing preoccupation with girls.

These commitments got Lily and Rick's relationship off to a tentative start, but by the end of the first episode, they had decided to take a gamble and go for it. In subsequent episodes, these two delightful characters have reverted to puppyish teenagers, stealing into the back seats of their cars (after sweeping away the piles of family debris from the seat) for short and sweet make-out sessions.

"My parents are 14 and 9," Lily tells Rick with a sigh at the end of one rendezvous. "How did that happen?"

It all adds up to a sweet, smart and funny drama about two recognizably complicated adults. No wonder the show's premiere drew the largest share of the coveted 18-49 viewership of any new network drama in the past four years.

"I think any artist is always surprised by success and good fortune," says executive producer Edward Zwick, who co-created the show with his longtime partner, Marshall Herskovitz, also an executive producer.

"You do what you do in a very private universe of your work, then amongst your collaborators and then with your family. All you have the benefit of is that kind of anecdotal response, which you instinctively know is generous.

"When that happens on any kind of large scale, then, there's always that element of surprise. And in a very odd way, there's almost a (sense of loss), because you had cherished the secrecy of it, and now it's out there and no longer just yours."

"Once and Again" was originally slated to abandon its current Tuesday time slot this month to make room for the season premiere of "NYPD Blue." ABC planned to put the new show on hiatus until January, at which point it would move to Monday after football season. Instead, it's decided to delay the Blue premiere until January.

Harlow's ghost on what show?

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

In a TV program airing in the 1970s or 1980s, a young couple with kids bought a house. In the attic was the ghost of Jean Harlow, but only the teen son could see her. What was the name of that program? -Laurie via e-mail.

Sounds as if you may be remembering "Jennifer Slept Here," a short-lived NBC sitcom that aired during the 1983-84 season. Ann Jillian starred as ghostly Jennifer Farrell, a glamorous, platinum blond movie star who haunted her old Beverly Hills abode and took a shine to 14-year-old Joey Elliott (John P. Navin Jr). Joey had moved with his parents (Brandon Maggart, Georgia Engel) and little sister (Mya Akerling) from New York, and Jennifer tried to help him gain confidence around California girls.

Teen heartthrob Glenn Scarpelli co-starred as Joey's new buddy, Marc.

Who is the adorable little girl who does the Pepsi "Joy of Cola" commercials? She is a joy to watch! -Alice L. Yost, Eureka, Calif.

Pipeline

Hollywood producers agree, because Hallie Kate Eisenberg is a hot property right now. At the tender age of 7, she already has racked up seven TV movie and feature credits since her 1998 debut in "Paulie." She played the title character's little sister in the CBS tearjerker "Nicholas' Gift" and co-stars with Robin Williams in the upcoming "Bicentennial Man."

At present, she's working on "Beautiful" for director Sally Field. Jesse Eisenberg of Fox's "Get Real" is her big brother, by the way.

I heard that singer Gary Morris was in a soap opera some years ago. Which one and when? -B.C. in Fairhaven, Mass.

Apart from his 1986 role as Wayne Masterson in the nighttime soap "The Colbys," Morris has appeared only as himself in two daytime dramas: "Another World" in 1987 and "General Hospital" in 1993.

Ann Jillian
JENNIFER SLEPT HERE

Is Dedee Pfeiffer ("For Your Love") related to Michelle Pfeiffer? -Nicole Herring, Rockport, Ind.

They're sisters.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Casper
6 P.M. ON ABC

The friendly ghost helps a sympathetic psychiatrist guide his fellow spirits to a better afterlife in this 1995 family fantasy. Dr. Harvey (Bill Pullman) is hired by an old mansion's new owner (Cathy Moriarty) to get rid of its ghostly inhabitants so she can claim the treasure reportedly hidden within. Along the way, Casper befriends Harvey's daughter, Kat (Christina Ricci), and a professional exorcist (Don Novello as Father Guido Sarducci). Eric Idle also stars.

Touched by an Angel
7 P.M. ON CBS

Tess, Monica and Andrew (Della Reese, Roma Downey, John Dye) find themselves in a modern-day Jekyll-and-Hyde story. Their assignment is a man with multiple personalities, one of which appears to have been touched by a devil, as it's growing more evil every day. Titus Welliver ("Brooklyn South," "Mulholland Falls") and Casey Biggs ("Star Trek: Deep Space Nine") guest star in "The Occupant."

The Simpsons
7 P.M. ON FOX

Don't have a cow, fans! The producers wouldn't let Halloween go by without a dose of Springfield surrealism. In "Tree House of Horror X," Bart and Lisa gain superpowers after X-raying their treats, and the Y2K bug stings the nuclear plant, thanks to Homer. The obligatory movie parody is a spoof of "I Know What You Did Last Summer," with Ned Flanders as the victim. The guest voice cast includes Lucy Lawless ("Xena: Warrior Princess") and Dick Clark.

Christina Ricci
CASPER

Movie: The Scarlet Pimpernel Meets Mademoiselle Guillotine
7 P.M. ON A&E

Richard E. Grant returns as Sir Percy Blakeney, a k a the Scarlet Pimpernel, in a new French Revolution swashbuckler. This time, his nemesis is the murderous Gabrielle Damiens, who's cutting off innocent heads at an alarming rate in her search for a marquis' missing daughter. The Pimpernel's wife (Elizabeth McGovern) almost loses her head to the cause. The young woman at the center of all this excitement, meanwhile, has found her own cause among the rebels battling Robespierre's reign of terror. Martin Shaw and Denise Black also star.

Movie: The Apartment Complex
7 P.M. ON SHOW

If Stan Warden (Chad Lowe), the new manager at Wonder View Apartments, thinks the place is weird — the owner's name is Dr. Caligari, and the pool is full of glowing muck, for starters — wait till he meets the people. They include a nymphomaniac psychic, a paranoid former government agent, a recluse with a dark secret and a woman with two personalities. The discovery of a corpse in the pool ratchets up the weirdness level a few more notches. Patrick Warburton ("Seinfeld"), Amanda Plummer, Tyra Banks and R. Lee Ermey ("Toy Story") also star.

Mixing business and pleasure ends in splitzville

It was quite a shock when the news broke that former talk show host Geraldo Rivera and wife C.C. had parted ways. The pair had always seemed so cozy, especially raising their young family together. What could have gone wrong? Given Rivera's wild past, which he revealed in his candid autobiography, "Exposing Myself," many observers speculate adultery is the most logical reason for the separation.

Geraldo Rivera

According to one source, Rivera and his wife were out boating when the broadcaster decided it would be a good time to bare his soul.

Rivera reportedly confessed to having affairs with two women closely tied to the O.J. Simpson trial. Apparently, his contrition was matched by C.C's anger, thus the resulting split.

The Simpson story did occupy much of Rivera's time. It seems he took investigative reporting to a new level (he does appear to go beyond the call of duty to get a story).

Talk the Talk

Rivera reportedly was seen in a restaurant holding hands with ex-felon Amy Fisher, in what onlookers described as an attempt to get her to agree to an interview.

Rivera did paint himself as a ladies' man in his book. It may not be easy to convince C.C. that this leopard can change his spots.

Another story making the rounds is that the "Dr. Joy Browne Show," launched last month, is already in rocky waters. OTalk show veteran Burt Dubrow is said to be telling staff members to prepare for the worst.

Monday's Best Bets

The Early Show
7 A.M. ON CBS

CBS makes yet another attempt at giving NBC's "Today" a run for its money with a new morning news and talk fest. Bryant Gumbel, who co-hosted "Today" for 15 years, returns to the a.m. groove to co-anchor the new competitor. His partner is former ABC reporter Jane Clayson, a news-biz veteran herself at only 32. Martha Stewart is on deck as a regular contributor to the show, which airs from an enormous new state-of-the-art ground-level studio in midtown Manhattan.

NFL Football
8 P.M. ON ABC

It's a homecoming for Mike Holmgren as the Seattle Seahawks take on the Green Bay Packers. The Seahawks head coach spent seven seasons at the helm of the Packers, leading them to a Super Bowl title, and now he returns to Lambeau Field in Wisconsin for the first time since resigning last January. His new team will need to contain Packers quarterback Brett Favre, whose development as a NFL player has much to do with Holmgren's tutelage. Favre is in the midst of perhaps his best season ever, leading the Packers to come-from-behind wins while directing the league's top offense.

Ally McBeal
8 P.M. ON FOX

Ally and Ling (Calista Flockhart, Lucy Liu) make an attempt at female bonding with a dinner date just for them — what a concept! — in "Buried Pleasures." Nelle (Portia de Rossi) shocks Cage (Peter MacNicol) by spilling some sexual information. Greg Germann, Courtney Thorne-Smith and Gil Bellows also star.

Investigative Reports
8 P.M. ON A&E

Suicide among the young has tripled in the past four decades to become their third most common cause of death. "Teen-Age Suicide: The Silent Threat" interviews psychologists and grief-stricken parents in an effort to understand the trend. It also looks at preventive measures that have sprung up to counter the epidemic, from medication and psychotherapy to screening programs designed to identify teens at risk for taking their lives. Bill Kurtis hosts.

Movie: Blue Valley Songbird
8 P.M. ON LIFE

In addition to being the star and one of the executive producers, Dolly Parton wrote the songs for this tuneful new drama based on one of her hits. Parton plays Leanna Taylor, a talented but only moderately successful country singer whose emotional baggage comes spilling open when she hears her tyrannical father has died. Soon she realizes another controlling man — her boyfriend and manager — is stifling her career just as her father did. But there's a new, nice guy waiting in the wings. John Terry, Billy Dean and Bob Morrison also star.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Spin City
7 P.M. ON ABC

In "The Mayor May Not," former U.S. Sen. Alfonse D'Amato (guest starring as himself) advises the mayor (Barry Bostwick), who's contemplating getting out of the Senate race. While mulling that decision, the mayor tries to avert a full-scale war between his campaign manager and his deputy (Heather Locklear, Michael J. Fox), sending the bickering pair to a marriage counselor. Carter (Michael Boatman) is having a stormy relationship of his own. Alan Ruck also stars.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

Twice-divorced, humble Southern belle Wallis Warfield Simpson became a romantic heroine when Britain's crown prince renounced the throne out of love for her. Authors Kitty Kelley ("The Royals") and Barbara Cartland, historians and those close to the royal family tell her real-life fairy-tale story in "Wallis, Duchess of Windsor: An American Royal."

NBA Basketball
7 P.M. ON TNT

The San Antonio Spurs begin defense of their championship when they host the Philadelphia 76ers on opening night in the NBA. The Spurs are the envy of many teams in the expansion-thinned league, where quality big men are at a premium. With Tim Duncan, who garnered MVP honors in the Finals, and David Robinson, the Spurs' twin towers alignment produces matchup nightmares for opposing defenses. The 76ers are coming off a second-round playoff appearance for the first time since the 1990-91 season. Guard Allen Iverson is the driving force, leading the NBA in minutes played and in scoring with almost 27 points a game last season.

John Lithgow
3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN

It's Like, You Know ...
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

You know how an aroma — Mom's meatloaf, your first love's cologne — can transport you back in time? In "The Sweet Smell of Success," Shrug (Evan Handler) sees money in that feeling and joins a friend in a new business: a bar specializing in old, familiar smells. Robbie (Steven Eckholdt) raises a stink about his new girlfriend's obsession with a certain blond movie hunk, while Lauren (A.J. Langer) is tuned in to a different sense: vision. A holy apparition on a billboard has her looking at Arthur (Chris Eigeman) in a whole new way.

3rd Rock From the Sun
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

The family's vintage Rambler needs replacing after Dick (John Lithgow) gets in a wreck. But he can't bring himself to say goodbye to the old car — or what's left of it. Speaking of inappropriate attachments, Harry (French Stewart) becomes best buddies with an overly friendly insurance agent (guest star Bob Odenkirk) in "The Fifth Solomon."

Wednesday's Best Bets

Two Guys and a Girl
7 P.M. ON ABC

Berg and Sharon (Ryan Reynolds, Traylor Howard) are both having memory lapses. Berg seems to have blocked out the fact that Ashley (Suzanne Cryer) has moved in, even though he's the one who invited her. At premarital counseling, Sharon recalls a tender moment with Johnny (Nathan Fillion), but she's remembering the wrong guy. Richard Ruccolo also stars in "Berg's New Roommate."

Beverly Hills, 90210
7 P.M. ON FOX

Matt's (Daniel Cosgrove) work with death-penalty opponents on behalf of his condemned client causes problems with Kelly (Jennie Garth), who hasn't exactly been soft on crime since she was assaulted. Another kind of death — the demise of a homeless man she met briefly — upsets Donna (Tori Spelling). Steve (Ian Ziering) wonders whether it's time to put away childish things — his Corvette, to be exact — now that he's a dad-to-be. Brian Austin Green also stars in "Laying Pipe," directed by series star Luke Perry.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

Before there was Diana, there was Grace, the movie beauty who became what every Grimm-reading American girl yearns to be: a real princess. Like Diana, she had a seemingly storybook marriage that was less than perfect but found solace in motherhood. And like Diana, she died before her time on the road. Film critic Andrew Sarris, fashion designer Oleg Cassini and others remember her in "Grace Kelly: The American Princess."

Richard Ruccolo
TWO GUYS AND A GIRL

Movie: At the Mercy of a Stranger
8 P.M. ON CBS

A woman whose controlling husband has taken out a contract on her life befriends the hit man he has hired, and together they hatch a plan to get back at him. Joanna Kerns ("Growing Pains"), Tim Matheson and Stephen Lang ("Last Exit to Brooklyn") star.

Law & Order
9 P.M. ON NBC

Benjamin Bratt's fans can get another glimpse of his best work as Detective Curtis from last season in the encore of "Empire." Guarding a key witness (Julia Roberts, Bratt's real-life girlfriend) in the death of a corporate bigwig puts him in an embarrassing position on the stand. Nothing happened when they were alone, but that's not how it sounds, thanks to a lawyer's clever questioning.

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

"Vigilante Dad" recounts the real-life "Wild West justice" story of Ken Arrasmith, a former sheriff from Idaho who shot a couple whom he believed had sexually abused his daughter. The prosecution painted him not as an enraged parent out to avenge his daughter's honor, but as a neglectful, drug-abusing father.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Diagnosis Murder
7 P.M. ON CBS

Mark (Dick Van Dyke) has an evil twin. OK, they're not related, but the man known simply as Greg (also played by Van Dyke), a shady real-estate swindler with mob ties, looks so much like the good doctor that even Steve (Barry Van Dyke) can't be sure who his dad is. Greg's plan to exploit the resemblance could give a new meaning to "dead ringer." Amanda (Victoria Rowell) investigates her suspicions of abuse in a young patient's foster home.

Shocking Celebrity Behavior: Caught on Tape
7 P.M. ON FOX

If you like celebrity dirt and those "When Animals Attack" shows, you'll love this hourlong special, which catches stars at their worst — throwing tantrums, getting into fights and otherwise behaving badly. Among the famous faces featured are a few you wouldn't expect such things from: Julia Roberts, Cher and Tom Cruise, to name a few.

Popular
7 P.M. ON WB

Sam and Brooke (Carly Pope, Leslie Bibb) take out their resentments toward their parents on each other in "Truth or Consequences." Sam hopes to bring Brooke down, with help from Harrison (Christopher Gorham), by exposing a cheating ring. The animosity ultimately erupts into the wildest food fight this side of "Animal House." Scott Bryce also stars.

Cher
SHOCKING CELEBRITY BEHAVIOR

Movie: Netforce
7 P.M. ON SCIFI

A computer nerd with a touch of megalomania finds a loophole to power in his Web browser and becomes master of the Internet. Fortunately, the FBI has set up a special force to combat Net crime. Unfortunately, it's a bit disorganized since its leader's murder. Scott Bakula, Kris Kristofferson and Judge Reinhold star in this technothriller set in the near future. Lionel Chetwynd (A&E's "P.T. Barnum") wrote the script.

Movie: Bram Stoker's Dracula
7 P.M. ON TNT

Title notwithstanding, Francis Ford Coppola's controversial 1992 adaptation plays fast and loose with both Stoker's yarn and vampire lore in general. Eiko Ishioka's eye-popping costumes and the makeup team's striking work received Oscars. Gary Oldman, Winona Ryder, Anthony Hopkins and Keanu Reeves star.

Greed: The Multi-Million Dollar Challenge
8 P.M. ON FOX

Fox seeks a piece of the popularity of ABC's "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" with its own version of a big-bucks quiz show. This one has a few twists: Contestants play on teams and then get the chance to turn against their teammates as the stakes rise. And those stakes are bigger than the competition's version. The grand prize is $2 million, but that amount increases by $200,000 each night there's no winner.

Friday's Best Bets

Boy Meets World
7 P.M. ON ABC
In "It's About Time," the term "best man" takes on an ironic tone for Cory (Ben Savage). Shawn (Rider Strong), his first choice for chief witness at the wedding, drops out when he can't pin the groom down about the future of their friendship. Then second best man Eric (Will Friedle) takes it upon himself to move the festivities. Danielle Fishel also stars.

Movie: Avalon: Beyond the Abyss
7 P.M. ON UPN
Things get weirder and weirder for oceanographer John Alden (Parker Stevenson) in this stunning sci-fi adventure. First, an implosion wipes an island in the Gulf of Mexico off the face of the Earth. Then, apparently as a result, a nasty strain of bacteria spreads through the sea. When Alden and his team go deep to stop the germs, they find the strangest thing of all: signs of alien life on the ocean floor. Krista Allen ("Days of Our Lives") also stars, along with some high-tech sea vehicles on loan from the Pentagon.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E
Call him the quiet man of the British royal family. While his wife, children, daughters-in-law and grandchildren have captured worldwide media attention over the years, Americans know little about Queen Elizabeth's husband. In the rebroadcast of "Prince Philip: A Step Behind the Queen," interviews with friends, associates and others help flesh out this portrait of the Greek boy, born into a dethroned royal family, who grew up to marry the woman who would be queen.

Margaret Colin
NOW AND AGAIN

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch
8 P.M. ON ABC
Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) is torn between two guys in "Prelude to a Kiss." She wants to cheer Harvey (Nate Richert) on at the big game, but she'd also like to give Josh (David Lascher) a hand with studying.

Now and Again
8 P.M. ON CBS
Michael and Theo (Eric Close, Dennis Haysbert) suspect someone's messing with people's minds — literally — when folks throughout the city start behaving with foolhardy fearlessness. Lisa (Margaret Colin) takes a more benign risk, bowing to Heather's (Heather Matarazzo) entreaties to ask Michael out. Gerrit Graham also stars in "Nothing to Fear, but Nothing to Fear."

Cinema Secrets
9 P.M. ON AMC
Computers have done great things for special effects, but films were convincingly fooling our eyes decades before digital technology. (Remember "King Kong"? The twister in "The Wizard of Oz"? The parting of the Red Sea in "The Ten Commandments"?) This new series goes back to the industry's infancy to trace the evolution of special effects.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Horse Racing
12 P.M. ON NBC

Gulfstream Park in southern Florida is the site of this year's Breeders' Cup, the Super Bowl of horse racing where history is made and megamoney is won. An expanded lineup of races, including the debut of the Filly and Mare Turf, add up to a purse structure totaling $15 million. And although a number of leading horses, including Real Quiet and Silver Charm, will be on the sidelines, the Horse of the Year and three-year-old titles will be up for grabs.

Movie: Desperado
4 P.M. ON USA

Antonio Banderas makes his debut as an action hero in this 1995 Western from director Robert Rodriguez. A sequel to "El Mariachi," the film follows a guitar-toting gunman as he sets his sights on a drug lord.

Movie: Dante's Peak
7 P.M. ON ABC

A scientist tries to warn the residents of a Pacific Northwest resort town of an impending volcanic eruption, but the locals (shades of "Jaws") fear the impact on the tourist trade if word gets out. But he does find an ally — and a potential romantic partner — in the town's mayor. Pierce Brosnan and Linda Hamilton star.

Movie: Saving Private Ryan
7 P.M. ON HBO

Steven Spielberg won the best director Oscar for this 1998 World War II drama, whose opening portrayal of the Normandy invasion is one of the most powerful war sequences in movie history. Tom Hanks stars as the captain in charge of a platoon assigned to go behind enemy lines and retrieve a private (Matt Damon) whose three brothers have all been killed. Edward Burns and Giovanni Ribisi also star.

Linda Hamilton
DANTE'S PEAK

8 P.M. ON A&E

Movie: Dalziel and Pascoe: Bones and Silence

Dalziel witnesses an apparent murder through the window of a nearby house, but the suspect — the victim's husband — claims his wife committed suicide when he caught her in a compromising position with his business associate. It looks like a clear-cut crime of passion, but Dalziel soon learns that it's anything but. Making things a little stranger is the casting of a local community theater production: Dalziel is playing God, with his suspect as Lucifer.

Zoophobia
8 P.M. ON DISC

Don't like spiders and snakes? The sight of a mouse makes you squeak with fear? You're not alone. This hour attempts to determine whether critter-phobias are inherited or learned, and how they can be eliminated. It covers three successful treatments: hypnotherapy, virtual reality and good old-fashioned gradual exposure to the scary species. Viewers meet a woman who was cured of an arachnophobia so severe she sprayed her car daily and duct-taped her doors.
